01/02 numbers

01/02 telephone numbers are geographic numbers, i.e. numbers which start with an area code. These numbers cost standard call rates to call. 01/02 telephone numbers allow for 'Out of Area Call'.

What is 'Out of Area Call'?

'Out of Area Call' is a service that allows you to advertise a specific local landline number and then have that number directed to any landline or mobile number.

Allows your customers to give the impression that they do business from anywhere in the country. For example a company based in Manchester, but wish to advertise your service in London; an 020 number can be purchased and advertised, giving your customers the impression that you are trading from London.

'Out of Area Call' is ideal for:

- Business expansion to new geographical areas
- Giving a local presence

What are the benefits of 'Our of Area Call'?

Flexible

Move anywhere in the world and keep a local number.

Single Number Solution

Keep your number for life, even if you move premises.

UK Wide

Most UK towns are supported

N.B. All UK area codes are available to use with this service
Existing telephone numbers can be ported to this service
